Career Guidance Cell

The Career Guidance Cell of B.H. College, Howly was formed in 2013 with a view to provide the students with necessary guidance, counsel and resources to face the professional world after the completion of their education. It serves as a bridge between academic learning and career planning, aiming to equip students with skills and knowledge to make informed career decisions.

The main objectives of the Career Guidance Cell are as follows:

1. To create awareness among students about career opportunities.
2. To take steps towards skill development such as communication, problem solving and soft skills through workshops and programmes.
3. To provide interpersonal counseling sessions by people with experience in professional fields.
4. To hold programmes which guide and mentor students for state and national level competitive examinations.
5. To build linkages with employers and create an environment which supports campus recruitment.

Structure and Administration:

The Career Guidance Cell shall consist of 1 Co-ordinator and 9 Faculty members.

- The Co-ordinator shall oversee, manage and report all the activities of the Career Guidance Cell.
- The Members of the Career Guidance Cell shall be responsible for smooth execution of specific programmes such as workshops, counseling, etc.
- The Career Guidance Cell shall meet periodically to discuss the prospective programmes to be organised, follow up of the previous programmes and other relevant matters. The proceedings of such meetings shall be uploaded on the website.

Conclusion:

The Career Guidance Cell of B.H. College, Howly aims to ensure that the students have the right awareness about the possible career opportunities after they complete their studies through a structured approach to career counseling and skill development.
